EU CRA Compliance Information

Related Product Scope Information

This document provides EU CRA compliance information for certain Fujitsu middleware products.

To understand the scope of products covered by this information and to access related security and vulnerability information, please refer to Vulnerabilities.

Products Intended for the EU Market

The following software products are intended by Fujitsu for distribution, support and EU CRA compliance activities within the European Union.

- Enterprise Postgres products
- Interstage XWand products
- NetCOBOL products

Important Notice

Products not listed above are not intended by Fujitsu for distribution in the European Union and are not covered by Fujitsu's EU CRA compliance program.

Fujitsu does not provide EU CRA-related compliance information, declarations, or compliance support for products that not listed above.

Customers and business partners are responsible for ensuring that any transfer, distribution, deployment, or use of Fujitsu products complies with applicable laws, regulations, and license terms.

CE-Marked Products

The following products bear the CE marking in accordance with the applicable EU requirements:

- (Not available yet)

© 2026 Fujitsu Limited